A unique property at the gates of a town immersed in an untouched landscape. The renovation works have been done with a lot of attention paid to the original characteristic of the building. The main part of the property has maintained its Tuscan style whether the barn has been transformed into a large cosmopolitan loft. The property could be suitable for a family with older children or older parents or for a family that loves to have guests. The house on the ground floor has a beautiful room with an old fireplace, a welcoming kitchen, a well-equipped double bedroom, one bathroom and a second double bedroom with bathroom en-suite with bath. The old barn is divided in a huge living space on the ground floor with bathroom and kitchenette and a sleeping area in the mezzanine. All of this is surrounded by a park with olive trees of about 5.000 mq. It is possible to build a swimming pool.
